Special Rate for College Students

College students enrolled in teacher training programs may take advantage of the Special Student Rate of $2.00 for a one-year subscription to Reading in High School.

This special rate is being made available to encourage prospective teachers to develop an interest in the special problems of reading instruction at the secondary level.

The $2.00 rate will apply to any subscription order that is countersigned by the student's college adviser, indicating adviser's faculty status and name of college.
